

Mudslingers Teachers and Staff have a unique interactive style and personally assist students in a collaboration to achieve results not otherwise possible for beginners and more experienced students.

John Hansen founded Mudslingers in 1997 after 25 years of teaching and producing pottery in Colorado and Wisconsin. His experience and humor enrich our classes. John's work sells nationally and is produced here. He is our program director and principal artist.

Brandon Schawel teaches art, K-12 in St. Vrain School District and is an accomplished potter. He is our lead instructor in summer and is very helpful for beginners.

Jeff White studied Ceramics at U of Minn and Mudslingers since 1997. His energy fills the studio as he teaches wheel and sculpture. Jeff is in the entertainment industry and is very entertaining.

Allison Bequette began her ceramic career in 1994 in a class at Mudslingers. She has been teaching and producing her own work since and featured in national exhibitions, competitions and publications. Allison also teaches music in Jeffco Schools.

MUDSLINGERS

Pottery School

Gallery
920 Main Street
Louisville, CO 80027

- Classes for Adults
- Children's Classes
- Individual & Group Lessons, Workshops
- Birthday Parties
- Scout Outings
- 10 Pottery Wheels
- Everything Provided

Fall Hours

Monday	10:00am-1:00pm
Tuesday	10:00am-1:00pm 7:00-9:30pm
Wednesday	10:00am--1:00pm 7:00-9:30pm
Thursday	10:00am-1:00pm 7:00-9:30pm
Friday	10:00am-1:00pm 4:00-7:00pm
Saturday	10:00am-2:00pm
Sunday	By Appointment

MUDSLINGERS

Pottery School

920 Main Street
Louisville, Colorado

Adult Program Fall 2018

Since 1997, Mudslingers, in Old Town Louisville has provided classes, lessons, and wonderful pottery to people of all ages and abilities. Our effective teaching style in a relaxed studio guarantees successful results and fun.

(303) 926-0996

mudslingerspotteryinc@gmail.com

